Chapter 1: The Dawn of Sacrifice: Agony, Betrayal, and Arrest

Luisa's reported experiences begin with an intense identification with Christ's agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. She allegedly felt the weight of the world's sins, the desertion by disciples, and the impending suffering. This wasn't a passive experience; Luisa described a profound participation, sharing in Christ's anguish and desolation. The betrayal by Judas is recounted as a wound to her own soul, a betrayal of trust and friendship. The arrest itself is depicted as a violation, a forceful separation from the peace she'd momentarily known. [SEO Keyword: Luisa Piccarreta Passion]

Chapter 2: The Trial and Condemnation: Injustice and Suffering

The trial and condemnation are described as an experience of profound injustice. Luisa claimed to share Christ's humiliating questioning, the false accusations, and the manipulative pronouncements of His enemies. This wasn't simply witnessing but a deep participation in the humiliation and suffering. She reportedly felt the weight of the false accusations and the agonizing separation from Divine justice. love. [SEO Keyword: Luisa Piccarreta Scourging]

This emphasis on active participation reveals a profound mystical union, transforming the passive contemplation of the Passion into a dynamic communion with Christ's suffering.
