

9 mile bridge maine

Book Concept: 9 Mile Bridge, Maine

Title: 9 Mile Bridge: Whispers from the Pines

Logline: A captivating blend of historical fiction and environmental thriller, exploring the secrets hidden beneath the surface of Maine's iconic 9 Mile Bridge and the fight to protect its fragile ecosystem.

Target Audience: Readers interested in historical fiction, environmental thrillers, Maine history and culture, and stories with strong female leads.

Storyline/Structure:

The novel opens with Sarah, a marine biologist returning to her Maine hometown after years away, inheriting her grandmother's dilapidated seaside cottage near the 9 Mile Bridge. The bridge itself is a character in the story, a weathered testament to human ingenuity and a vital link to the islands. Sarah discovers a hidden family secret tied to the bridge's construction, a secret that impacts the delicate ecosystem of the surrounding waters. Simultaneously, she uncovers a present-day threat to the bridge and its environment, a corporate scheme to exploit the area for profit. The narrative unfolds through alternating timelines - Sarah's present-day investigation and her grandmother's diaries detailing the bridge's controversial construction in the 1930s - weaving together a compelling mystery that challenges Sarah to confront both her family's past and the ecological crisis of the present.
