Reading is a fundamental human activity, a gateway to knowledge, empathy, and self-discovery. Yet, in our age of information overload, finding the right books can feel like searching for a needle in a haystack. This book challenges the notion of a one-size-fits-all approach to reading, advocating for a personalized journey tailored to your individual needs and aspirations. Mauricio, a lifelong reader and book collector, believes that the key to unlocking the transformative power of reading lies in cultivating a mindful and intentional relationship with books. Understanding your preferences allows you to choose books that resonate with you, increasing engagement and enjoyment. This chapter explores various reading personalities and provides tools and exercises to identify your own reading style. It covers:
