2. Chapter 1: The Shifting Sands – Unveiling the Foundations

This chapter focuses on the pre-history of the characters introduced in Mansfield's original work. It establishes the Burne family's dynamics before the events of "At the Bay," painting a richer picture of their individual personalities and their intertwined histories. We are introduced to the nuances of their relationships – the subtle tensions between parents, the complex dynamics among siblings, and the hopes and dreams that shape their lives. We see the characters not as static figures, but as individuals evolving within their environment, shaped by experiences and choices.
