Book Concept: Autobiography of My Dead Brother

Logline: A grieving sister unravels the mystery of her brother's life and death through his posthumously discovered journal, confronting her own grief and discovering unexpected truths about their shared past.

Storyline/Structure:

The book is structured as a dual narrative. The first is the sister, Clara's, present-day journey of grief and discovery. She finds a hidden journal belonging to her recently deceased brother, Daniel, a reclusive artist who died under mysterious circumstances. Clara, struggling to come to terms with his sudden death and their estranged relationship, begins to read his journal. This forms the second narrative – Daniel's life story, told through his own words.

The book alternates between Clara's present-day struggles and Daniel's past, slowly revealing the secrets and complexities of his life, his artistic struggles, his hidden passions, and the events leading up to his death. The mystery surrounding Daniel's death remains a central plot driver, leading Clara on a journey of self-discovery as well as an investigation into her brother's life. The climax involves Clara uncovering a shocking truth about Daniel's death and their relationship, forcing her to confront her own guilt and ultimately find a path towards healing.
