Book Concept: Bien Dit: French 1 - A Culinary Journey

Logline: Learn French effortlessly by embarking on a delicious culinary adventure through France, one recipe and conversation at a time.

Target Audience: Adults (18-65+) interested in learning French, especially those motivated by food and culture. Beginners with little to no prior French knowledge.

Storyline/Structure: Instead of a dry grammar-focused approach, "Bien Dit: French 1" structures its lessons around iconic French dishes and regional cuisines. Each chapter focuses on a specific region of France (e.g., Provence, Brittany, Normandy) and introduces vocabulary, grammar, and cultural insights relevant to that region's culinary traditions. Students learn to order food, discuss ingredients, and engage in casual conversations in authentic French settings. The book incorporates recipes that students can prepare alongside their studies, creating a multi-sensory and engaging learning experience. Each chapter culminates in a "Culinary Challenge"—a practical application of the learned language through preparing and describing the regional dish.

Ebook Description:
