Chapter 1: The Million-Dollar Idea – A Hilariously Flawed Plan

This chapter details Big Man's initial ambitious plan – a seemingly foolproof scheme designed to make him a millionaire. This plan, however ludicrous, is presented with utmost seriousness by Big Man. The humor derives from the stark contrast between his grandiose vision and the clumsy, chaotic reality of his execution. The chapter focuses on the escalating series of mistakes and unforeseen circumstances that derail his grand scheme. It might involve a misunderstanding, a technical glitch, or the intervention of completely unrelated events, all of which contribute to the comedic effect. The chapter showcases the comedic timing and visual storytelling of the comic, focusing on the physical comedy of his escape attempt. This could involve a series of elaborate disguises, mishaps with transportation, or running into unexpected obstacles. (Keyword: Great escape, slapstick humor, comic timing, visual storytelling)

Chapter 4: Romance on the Rocks – A Love Story with a Twist

The humor comes from the ironic contrast between his perceived business acumen and his actual lack of skills, showcasing the pitfalls of ambition without competence. (Keyword: Business, deal, blunder, satire, comedy)
